Day 3 TASHKENT SAMARKAND (TRAIN)	Breakfast at the hotel. Transfer to Tashkent Railway Station. Train to Samarkand (according to the schedule and availability). Excursion program in Samarkand: Mausoleum of Guri Emir - the tomb of Tamerlane (14-15 century) - the place where Amir Temur, his sons and grandsons are buried. Registan Square is one of the outstanding examples of urban planning art of Central Asia, formed in the XVII century and consisting of three madrasahs - Ulugbek (1417-1420), Sher-Dor (1619-1636) and Tillya-Kari (1647-1660). On it you can "turn the pages" of the many thousands of histories of Samarkand. Bibi Khanum Mosque is the largest in Central Asia and one of the largest in the entire Muslim world. It is on this structure that everyone who enters the city directs his astonished gaze. Huge, majestic, silent The architectural complex of Shahi - Zinda (11th-15th century) is the burial place of royalty and nobility. But the main mausoleum, from where the necropolis begins, is the imaginary grave of the cousin of the Prophet Muhammad - Kusam Ibn Abbas. He was called "Shahi Zinda", which means "Living King" in Persian. Night at the hotel

Day 4 SAMARKAND	Breakfast at the hotel. Morning visit to the Siab Bazaar - the largest bazaar in Samarkand Free time to buy souvenirs and oriental sweets Ulugbek Observatory (15th century) - Ulugbek's scientific works were created thanks to the unique observatory that he erected in Samarkand. The main stationary instrument was a giant quadrant placed inside a cylindrical building with a diameter of 48 m (the remains of the foundation, or rather the trenches from it, were found during archaeological research) Visit to the Mausoleum of the Prophet Daniel - The prophet Daniel is revered by the three world religions. He is one of the four great Israelite prophets in Judaism, a prophet whose book is included in the Old Testament of the Christian Bible and a prophet of the Islamic tradition. Legend has it that Timur transported part of Daniel's remains, namely his hand, to Samarkand. Night at the hotel
